++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A cloudy and breezy start but becoming brighter.

Today:
A breezy and cloudy start with perhaps the odd spot of light rain. Becoming brighter, with sunny spells by mid morning, and winds gradually easing through the afternoon. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with largely clear skies and light winds overnight, which may allow some isolated patches of mist and fog to form in rural areas towards dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
A bright start for most, but it will soon become rather cloudy with some patchy light rain and drizzle possible across the Peak District. Breezy, particularly over higher ground. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Largely dry with bright spells Saturday. Sunny spells and a few showers Sunday. A band of heavy rain and strong winds moving eastwards overnight, clearing to further heavy showers Monday.
